THE DEUTSCHE ZEITUNG. The Sudlicher Correspondent has been bought by Messrs. F. Melohers & Son, and will hereafter be issued under e name of the Beutsche Zeitung. Major Franz Melchers is a veteran editor, and for many years published a paper under the name of the Deutsche situng in this city. When the war broke out, Major Meichers abandoned the editorial triped and went into the Confederate army, where he did gallant service. Major Melchers has the ability and energy to make his paper a shining journalistic light, and we trust that his career will be as prosperous as it will certainly be honorable.

A BURGLAR HALTED AND CAPTUL .. About one o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Meill, beard a key turning in the lock of the door open on the platza from the street. Arming him self with his repolver, he notselessly descended the cairs, and on opening his front door discov ered , man moving cantionals, along the plazisa.

Presenting his cooked revolver, he agicar persuaded the intruder to stand quistly, and calling a policeman on duty in the neighborhood, transferred the prisoner to lifm. The inquisitive young Proves to be one Frank Dorset, who was an atache of Robinson's circus, and left behind by that company at its fast visit to this city. He effeeted his entrance into the house in a very artistic manner by the use of a skeleton key, a large and various bunch of which keys was found upon his person. Frank has been playing these pranks for some time past, and has been arraigned on several different complaints. After a preliminary examination before the Mayor, he was turned over to the State for prosecution.

ROBBING THE PLANTER Early yesterday morning, long before daylight, filen enaut Philip py and Officer Davissuicoccied in arresting Washingion Bryant, Abgustus Carr and Leonard Session, three worthies accused of stealing a bag of conce from the steamer Planter. Upon examination it appears that the prisoners was making her customary trip from George-town to this city. A certain bag of fine coffee shipped on board the steamer seemed to have hidden charms for these men, for, without saying to say one, the two hist named ripped open the parous with as Beterated Landing, emptied the contents may their shirts, carried it ashore and disposed of it. The matter was reexted at the detegative's officer who forth with arrested a warming pan. Dick Hazzard by name, who, in terror for his numerous peccaditios not wild, in terror for his numerous peccadillos not yet brought to light revened all ha knew of the abstraction and disposal of the conee. On his enformation the three men above named were arrested. Leonard session did not appear from the ovidence as pour connected with the analr, and was released. Bryant and Care owned the theft, and are held for examination.

OVER-ZEALOUS HOTEL DRUMMERS .- The Augusta Constitutionall t of yesterday says: "Las: Sunday afternoon, after the arrival of the Charleston train, a difficulty occurred at the Union depot. between Mr. J. E. Edwards, a drummer for the Planters' Hotel, and Mr. Charles Little, acting in the same capacity for the Globe Hotel, growing out of their sensitive conception of the merits of the respective hotels. The representative of the Plan ters' announced to passengers that his hotel was the best in the city, a proposition at once, and with some degree of bluntness and profanity, dented by the representative of the Globe. Words led to blows, when, as a policeman separated the combatants, Mr. Edwards drew his pistol and fired at Mr. Little, the ball taking effect in the right breast, near the shoulder. Mr. Edwards was arrested and committed to jail to await the result of the wound inflicted by him. The wounded man is now lying at the Globe Hotel, receiving every attention requisite for his comfort and treatment, and, as we learned at a late hour yesterday afternoon, hopes are entertained of his

THE TEACHERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Six months' pay was due the teachers in the Charleston public schools on the 1st instant. Nearly all the teachers are ladies, many of whom are dependent for their support upon their pay as teachers. All the teachers are seriously inconve nienced by the delay in paying what they have so painfully earned, and their position and services, as well as the nature of their employment, give them a strong claim upon the General Assembly, with which body it rests to provide for the liquidation of their claims, amounting in all, we believe, to about $17,000. Unless the General Assembly provide a speedler means, the teachers cannot be paid until after April, when the state taxes will be collected. The teachers will then be nine months in arrears. We understand that a proposition is before the General Assembly looking to the prompt payment of the Charleston teachers, and its prompt adoption would be hailed with gladness by all Charleston County. If the meliowing influences of Christmas linger in the memory of the members of the Legislature, they will not fall to be just to the teachers of our pub

A TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT .- Yesterday afternoon an animated suit was carried on in Trial Justice Mackey's court by an old colored woman Edith Allen, against Wm. Young. The question was the ownership of an old iron pot, valued at $5. Edith had been working for Mr. Sam. Bennett for some time, and upon leaving carried off the pot, which Young recognized in her possession about three weeks ago, and knowing it to be Mr. Bennett's, took charge of it. Edith demanded the pet en Tuesday, and Young stoutly refused o give it up. 'An appeal to law was the conseuence, and the case came up in due form. The pot was produced, and proved to have cost $8 50 when new. Witnesses were brought who testiled as to the identity of the pot and its capacity, with all the acuteness and discernment of expe denced cooks. The pot alone retained its coolness in the heat of the d scussion, and Edith went almost distracted as the justice adjudged the much-loved article of domestic furniture to the wily Young. The latter quietly marched off with the prize, leaving the justice to be assailed with the voluble and piercing tongue of the weeping plaintiff.

THE KIDNAPPING CASE .- After a long and thorough examination into the facts of this case, Trial Justice John G. Mackey brought the matter o a close yesterday morning, and discharged the two defendants-Hernandez and May. The cirnumstance that the two latter acted under the warrant and commitment of Trial Justice Bunch clears them of blame in the matter, the suspicion of foul play on their part arising from the fact hat the prisoner, when arrested, had never been brought before the trial justice by whom the warrant was issued. The evidence also showed that Stewart had signed shipping articles, which at once disposed of the charge of kidnapping. The affidavit of May, upon which the warrant was based, was most indefinite and uncertain in its character, merely stating that "he had reason to believe the defendant wished to desert his contract," and we hardly supposed that even a trial justice of the Bunch genus would have the hardinood to issue a warrant on so vague a statement. Besides issuing a warrant, however, on this pointless affidavit, Trial Justice Bunch granted a commitment also, a proceeding which shows either the grossest ignorance of the taw or a mest sovereign contempt for the liberties of the people. Wh have not ye: been able to learn of any pro ceeding instituted against Bunch, but the grand jury will have a chance at him at the coming term of the Court of General Sessions.

CLUBS AND STARS .- A woman who had taken too much liquor, and was found in a state of intoxication in Mazyck street, was brought before the Mayor, and, pleading "first offence," was discharged.

A man, found in the same condition in King street, was arrested, and, upon being brought into court, pleaded several extenuating circumstances so successfully that the Mayor relented and discharged him. Edward Grant and John Robinson were arrested on Tuesday evening by the police, charged with stealing lumber from a yard in the upper part of the city. Upon being brought before the Mayor, they claimed to have been following the innocent occupation of the man in the moon, and, the prosecutor not appearing, they were dis

Henry Williams; after spending the night in the Gnardhouse, was brought into court and tried on a charge of stealing a ham from the grocery store at the corner of Chapel and Alexander streets. Henry had entered the store, on Tuesday evening, apparently to purchase something, when the sight of this ham, resting unnoticed on the counter, overcame his resolution to k ep the sixth commandment: He was caught in the act, and brought before the Mayor. After a short interview with the latter, he left for the flouse of Correction, where he can be found for the next ten days. COLD CONFORT. - A correspondent, in a letter printed in yesterday's News, spoke very feelingly of the "pinched blue look" of the pupils and teachers in the public schools, and suggested that teaching was emphatically "very cold work." This statement is pecularly touching in this arctic weather, the more especially as the 'pinched blue look," and cold comfort generally. were said to be due to a rule that the teachers and pupils must be out in the playground whether it ains or shines; and to a record rule, that "no extra wrans" be worn while in school; and to a third rule, which prohib-ts teachers and pupil from going near the stoves. Tais is very sad; but it is slightly inexact. Only the teachers of the primary classes are required to remain with their pupils dering recess; this is necessary because of the tender age of many of the children. There is no restriction whatever upon "extra wraps." of which both teachers and pupils may wear as many as they please. Nor is there any rule preventing the whole school from ob taining the benefit of the stove. A public school is not a Paradise by any means, but the Charleston public schools rank with the best institutions of the kind in the country, and if the public desire to be satisfied upon the "pinched blue look"

question, they need only look in for themselves

during school hours. It will be found, we venfor the comfort of both teachers and pupils; and if the pupils are "hardly ever without colds," they

but share the common lot of humanity, and may at least, blow their little nones in the in ervals of ture to say, that every thing practicable is done

FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR IN EDGEFIELD.— The Augusta Constitutionalist says: "On Sunday evening last, about twelve miles from Hamburg n Stevens creek, Captain George Butler, brothe of General M. C. Butler, was shot and instantly killed by a young man named Winslow Hamilton From the most authentic accounts we have hear of the sad affair, it seems that Mr. T. J. Hamilton the father of the young man who fired the fatal shot, was on the eve of removing to Columbia County, in this State, and in preparation therefor had penned his cattle ready to be driven. Among the number seems to have been one steer or call to which Captain Butler laid claim, which he requested Mr. Hamilton to liberate, and, as we are informed, visited the bouse of the latter to secure k. While there an angry discussion sprung up between them, which eventuated in young Hamilton gathering his gun and firing upon Captain Butler, the charge taking effect in his breast and causing tramediate death. Of further details of the sad affair we are not sufficiently advised to aneak positively."

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR WOMAN'S BIGHTS. On Tuesday night Robert Simons and Eliza Edwards had a slight dispute in a yard on Queen street, adjoining the house in which they lived. Eliza, for some ca se or other, seems to have a decided grudge against the young man, which is said to have originated in his visits to another woman. The dispute, at first of no consequence, under a woman's tongue grew rapidly into importance, and some choice selections from Webster's unabridged were a sufficient prelude to blows. With no other arms but those with which she was endowed by nature, Eliza pitched furiously into her male antagonist, and, accompanying her blows with all the lashes of her tongue, soon had him in a tight place. Robert soon found that he was getting the worst of it; but fortunately the voluble tongue of Eliza brought the police to his rescue. They were both arrested and brought before the Mayor for trial. Robert was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or spend ten days in the House of Correction; while Eliza received her sentence of a fine of $10 or twenty days in the House of Correction with eyes flashing out fearful suggestions of the next encounter of the twain.

THE RAILROAD STATION INDICATOR .- We are informed by General W. S. Walker that he has perfected the organization of the agencies of this usueful and ingenious instrument in Charleston, and that he feels justified in giving the assurance that, in the future, the instruments will be careinily attended. The enterprise was initiated in the City of Charleston, and, being entirely novel and untried, mistakes were made at the start, which were corrected by further experience. The superintendents of the South Carolina Railroad, of the Savannah and Charleston, and of the Northeastern and Wilmington and Manchester Railroads, have cordially co-operated with General Walker, and have entered into a written agreement to require their conductors to take proper charge of the instrument. The instrument has been successfully introduced on the roads in Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia; but the most thorough organization has just been made on the South Carolina Railroad. Mesars. Walker, Evans & Cogswell have been ecured as agents for the printing and change of schedules, Mr. James Allan for repair of clock movements, and Messrs. Quinby & Co. as photographers. Gentlemen of character and influence have been secured as agents in New York, Baltimore, Logisville and Cincinnati, and we trust the enterprise will be vigorously carried our, and will prove remunerative to the proprietors, as well as seful to the public.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Carolina Rifle Club, held on Tuesday, 3d January, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: Since our last meeting, and for the first time since our organization, death has laid his hand upon one of our number. We are called upon to mourn the loss of Eugene W. West, who has been suddenly stricken down in the very vigor of manhood and usefulness, and, now that he is gone, it is but meet that we should express the great csteem and respect we have for his memory. Generous in disposition, amiable in manners, always ready to work and to do for the help of his friends, he endeared himself to all who knew him. A good and henorable man has passed from us, we believe and hope, to everlasting peace and rest, where the trials and troubles of the world can never reach. Resolved. That we fondly cherish the memory of our late companion, Eugene W. West, and mourn the loss to our club of an unostentatious though useful member.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his

Charleston, January 3, 1871. HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF

NEW HAVEN. An error has occurred in warlous newspapers, in stating the capital at ten millions of dollars instead of one million. The latter amount was all the company ever claimed to have, and this was lately reduced to half a million, and was so published. The history of the company, in its transactions at its Charles on agency, shows that they have always prompily met their obligations, as soon as they were correctly ascertained. The amount of losses paid by the Home of New Haven since it resumed business here after the war, is nearly $63,000. From the following, which is taken from the Atlanta Constitution of 1st last, it would appear that measures are in progress in New Haven to revive the company:

the Policy-Holders in the Home Insurance Company, of New Haven: In consequence of telegraph in this morning's papers. I dispatched to the company for the facts. and received in reply that the stockholders and directors were then in session, and would telegraph me the result, and I am just now in receipt of the following telegram:

NEW HAVEN, 31st December, 1870. To W. H. Hancock, Agent, Atlanta: Meeting adjourned till Tucsday. Stockholders and directors making up deficiency, and new stock being taken rapidly. We are coming out right. E. B. Cowles, Secretary. From the above, it will be seen that the company does not intend'that its patrons shall lose by them. In the meantime, however, policy-holders need not be alarmed, as I have a ready taken the precaution to place every policy in A No. 1 comcantes, and will hold them good until I hear further from the company, and then all the particu-English grammar, vulgar fractions, or the use of lars will be laid before the public. W. H. HANCOCK, Agent. Respectfully, DISASTROUS FIRE AT ST. STEPHEN'S .- At 3 o'c ock in the afternoon of Monday, the 2d of Jan nary, the gin-house of H. Panz-beiter & Oc., at St. Stephen's depot, on the Northeastern Railroad, took fire, and in the course of an hour was burn ed to the ground. The fire caugh; in one of the saw gins of the establishment, and getting among the lint cotton, spread so rapidly in every direction as to defy any attempt to put it out. Pive horses and two fine carriages were burned. Three hundred bushels of corn, ten bales of sea sland outton and two of upland; belonging to B Tuitle and W. Canden, and two hundred bushels of cotton seed, which were in the building, were all consumed. The dwelling house of Messrs. H. Panaebelter & Co. was also considerably damaged. There was no insurance on any of the property destroyed.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Sappho English Comio Opera troupe drew a fair house last night, but as the infant Sappho did not appear as cast in the first plece, the audience were forced to certain their curiosity. Mr. Louden, who was cast for Papito, was also missing, and the comic opera went of poorly despite the efforts of the emaining performers. In the selections from The Tempest, the infant Sappho had a fine opportunity of displaying her powers, and her juvenile appearance, contrasting strangely with her assured accent and graceful acting, excited the sympathy of the house. In Endymion the Sappho sang charmingly, and was warmly applauded. Miss Lelia, as Cupid, was graceful and protty, and sang well. Mr. Ellis was an excellent Pan, and soon established an entente cordials with the galleries. Endymion, taken altogether, tickled the audience hugely, gave them a hearty laugh, and sent them home in good
